

IN-KIND ACTIVITY EXAMPLES

Classroom Activities	Non-classroom Activities	Home Activities
Reading or telling stories to children	Assisting in fixing parent and classroom boards	Completing activities for each of the 50 goals and objectives.  Refer to SCHOOL READINESS  IN-KIND PARENT GUIDE
Assisting children in all activity areas in the classroom, including art activities, cooking experiences, carpentry activities.	Providing suggestions for classroom activities or field trips	Cutting out items for collages, arts and craft items
Sharing ethnic recipes, traditions, songs, etc. in the classroom	Gathering materials for classroom projects	Typing site meeting minutes
Teaching common words in a foreign language	Making materials for use in the classroom (play dough, doll clothes, etc)	Preparing packets for various site activities
Assisting the teachers in a walk outdoors, on field trip or other outdoor activities	Making phone contacts regarding special activities	Reading a story every night with your child before putting him/her to bed
Playing the piano or another musical instrument	Office assistance to staff	Sit down and eat a meal together. Tell your child about your day. Ask him/her about their day.
Assisting teacher in preparing a class activity (larger or small group)	Copying hand-outs	Play board games together. Pick games that encourage counting and following directions.

Greeting children/helping with arrival routines	Stapling, folding, sorting copies	Draw pictures while talking about shapes and colors. Encourage your child to describe his/her picture
Participation in Circle Time	Tape recording a story for use in the classroom	Have your child help you prepare dinner or a snack.
Assisting children in your designated work area in classroom	Participating in the program's annual review	While riding in a car, talk about weather and changes in seasons.
Assisting those children that need extra support during the programming time	Assisting with recruitment	Before going shopping, write with your child a list of five items you will purchase. Say the word and letter sounds out loud.
Assist children with tooth brushing	Attendance at POLICY COUNCIL or POLICY COMMITTEE meetings.	Talk about the importance of tooth brushing. Encourage brushing three times per day.
Assist with the various activities that occur during breakfast/lunch/ snack	Attendance at Socialization activities	Have your child help with folding the laundry. Encourage them to match socks.
Assisting children with dismissal/departure	-	